

Dear Chairman Powell,
What Sinclair is doing is precisely the violation of the nations airways which the FCC should vigorously enforce.
Failing to do so, would only prove that you are not capable of non-partisan application of FCC rules. When trust in government is at an all time low, are your actions consistent with your responsibilities or partisan ship. Sinclair does not own the airways. We do!

Respectfully,

Michael Framson